DESCRIPTION	The Adnet Wall Mirror Rectangular originates from the partnership of the designer Jaques Adnet and a famous French fashion house in the 1950s. By applying the fashion house's knowledge and high quality of leather to Jacques Adnet's innovative thinking and design vision, the two parts created a series of remarkable interior designs. Among them were the Adnet Wall Mirror Rectangular a characteristic work of Adnet with its studded leather mirror and burnished brass rivets on the edges. With its simplicity of design combined with the warmth of leather and finest detailing, the Adnet Wall Mirror Rectangular comes in three sizes and serves equally well in hallways, bathrooms and dressing rooms, either horizontal, vertical, mounted to the wall or leaned against it. It adds depth, reflects light, expands horizons and adds a magical allure.
