

CILINDRO

Design: Luigi Caccia Dominioni, 1963

This perfectly-proportioned masterpiece of elegance is the quintessence of form and style. In the shape of a two-tier cylinder, the lower part is made of brass topped with a velvet, woollen cloth or leather seat top. Cilindro and its many reworking can be spotted on the set of legendary films, in chic apartments and the smartest nightclubs, bars and restaurants the world over. Cilindro is much more than a design object - its minimalist lines make it a punctuation mark in any setting, large or small.
