FEDERICO PERI

A visionary creation by Federico Peri, Blend is offered in two complementary versions: a sculptural storage piece that redefines spatial dynamics, and a desk that plays with our perception of balance. Both interpretations fuse functionality with theatrical presence, striking a dynamic equilibrium between form and material. The storage unit is born from the interplay of contrasting elements—structural supports and open volumes—interwoven into an architecture of solids and voids, weight and lightness. Each angle reveals a new perspective, transforming the piece into a constantly evolving sculpture in dialogue with its surroundings. The desk, on the other hand, is built around a single structural leg, with a top that appears to float effortlessly. Its curved volume discreetly conceals storage spaces, housed within a fluid form that balances solidity and movement. The contrast between materials and finishes heightens the design's dynamic character, underscoring the fusion of aesthetics and utility. Blend is more than a furnishing piece—it's a transformative element that reshapes interiors with a contemporary vision, establishing itself as a focal point of sophisticated originality.
