

ISAMU STONE

TABLES AND SMALL TABLES | Outdoor
ROBERTO LAZZERONI

With Isamu Stone, Roberto Lazzeroni designs a collection for Baxter that celebrates the expressive power of natural stone. Both table and side table share a sculptural aesthetic: a marble top with softened corners poised delicately on solid wood legs that slot precisely into sculpted grooves, achieving perfect harmony between form and material. Each marble slab is worked to preserve the unique tonal variations and textures of the living stone, maintaining its authenticity and tactile richness. In the precious travertine version, brushed finishes enhance the open-pored surface, offering extraordinary depth to both the eye and the touch. A subtle balance of solidity and lightness, Isamu Stone is designed for spaces of enduring elegance—sophisticated and timeless by nature.
